A SUNDAY HORSE

A Film Review by Ron Stone

I just saw a new film called "A Sunday Horse". It tells the true story of Debi Connor, at horse rider and trainer. Connor dreamed of winning the Olympic gold medal for horse jumping since she was a child.

5 Connors family couldn't pay for the horses or the training she needed. So she worked very hard on a horse farm to earn money. A businessman who saw her talent decided to help her. He bought Connor two horses and she started training them. After only one year, she got on the US Olympic team with her horse. Touch of Class. She believed her Olympic dream could come true.

10 Unfortunately, Connor had a bad accident on at horse and could not participate in the Olympics. Her doctors told her she would probably never walk again. So she sold Touch of Class. The new owner rode the horse in the Olympics and won two gold medals. Connor watched the competition from her wheelchair at home. Surprisingly. after many months of therapy, she became strong enough to ride again. She started to participate in competitions. She even competed against 15 Touch of Class and won.

Connor had to deal with many difficulties but never gave up. Today she is a successful businesswoman. She buys and sells horses. She is also a trainer and still competes and wins prizes.

20 Many people say this is the most realistic film ever made about horse competitions. I think the actors are excellent, especially Nikki Reed who plays Debi Connor. You can feel her love of horses. I believe it is a movie that the whole family will enjoy. Even people who don't know much about horses will love this heart-warming film.
